BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®
CASCADE PACIFIC COUNCIL

Confidential Eagle Scout Reference Form

Reference Name	Eagle Scout Candidate Name & Phone	Unit#	Date

This young man is applying for the highest award the Boy Scouts of America can bestow upon a youth member. He has worked for several years, and if he is successful in his quest, he will have earned a nationally recognized achievement that he will be proud of for the rest of his life. In addition, the Eagle Scout Rank will open many doors for him, while at the same time placing upon him the expectation to set an example of high values and ethics.

Soon he will be called before the Eagle Scout Board of Review, a group of citizens who represent the Cascade Pacific Council, BSA. We are hoping you will be able to help the Board get to know him as they make their decision whether or not to recognize him with the Award.

The Eagle Scout candidate has submitted your name as a reference. Would you please take a moment and complete this confidential form? The candidate was to have supplied you with a stamped envelope already addressed, so you can send the completed form to his BSA district advancement chairman. If he did not, please give him a call for the proper name and address. Please do not return the form to the candidate.

Eagle Scout requirement #2 states, "Demonstrate that you live by the principles of the Scout Oath and Law in your daily life."   Give us your opinion. Does this young man live by the principles shown below? How? Look at each point. Can you give us some examples?

Scouting Principle	How Eagle Candidate Lives This Principle (feel free to write on back or attach another page)
On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight
A Scout is Trustworthy. A Scout tells the truth. He keeps his promises. Honesty is part of his code of conduct. People can always depend on him.
A Scout is Loyal. A Scout is true to his family, friends, Scout leaders, school, nation, and world community.
A Scout is Helpful. A Scout is concerned about other people. He willingly volunteers to help others without expecting payment or reward.
A Scout is Friendly. A Scout is a friend to all. He is a brother to other Scouts. He seeks to understand others. He respects those with ideas and customs that are different from his own.
A Scout is Courteous. A Scout is polite to everyone regardless of age or position. He knows that good manners make it easier for people to get along together.
A Scout is Kind. A Scout understands there is strength in being gentle. He treats others as he wants to be treated. He does not harm or kill anything without reason.
A Scout is Obedient. A Scout follows the rules of his family, school, and troop. He obeys the laws of his community and country. If he thinks these rules and laws are unfair, he tries to have them changes in an orderly manner rather than disobey them.
A Scout is Cheerful. A Scout looks for the bright side of life. He cheerfully does tasks that come his way. He tries to make others happy.
A Scout is Thrifty. A Scout works to pay his way and to help others. He saves for the future. He protects and conserves natural resources. He carefully uses time and property.
